THE ORDER OF SERVICE

PRELUDE      Chorale Prelude on "Schmücke dich, o liebe Seele," BWV 654      Johann Sebastian Bach
(1685-1750)
Eric Plutz, University Organist

HYMN      O God, Our Help in Ages Past      St. Anne

I
O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home!

II
Under the shadow of your throne
Your saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is your arm alone,
And our defense is sure.

III
Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received its frame,
From everlasting you are God,
To endless years the same.

IV
A thousand ages, in your sight,
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.

V
Time, like an ever rolling stream,
Soon bears us all away;
We fly forgotten, as a dream
Fades at the opening day.

VI
O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Still be our God while troubles last,
And our eternal home!

OPENING SENTENCES

Leader:      God is our refuge and strength.
People:      A very present help in trouble.
Leader:      God, you have been our refuge
People:      From one generation to another.
Leader:      Let us pray.

A PRAYER      (Leader)

O God our Creator, the source of life, from whom we come and to him all life leads, we praise you for the gift of life, for its joys and wonders, its friendships, family and community. We thank you for the ties that bind us so closely to one another. We ask for the faith to entrust to the power of your love those who have passed on. We thank you for their accomplishments, their happiness, and the times of grace they shared with us. Gather them with those who have gone before in the comfort of a saving hope and at perfect peace with all the world.

SANCTUS

Charles Gounod
University Chapel Choir
Penna Rose, Director
Soloist: Gregory Loshkajian '16

READING

Psalm 91

Leader: Whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High, who abides under the shadow of the Almighty
Shall say to God, "You are my refuge and stronghold, my God in whom I put my trust."

Leader: God shall deliver you from the snare of the hunter and from the deadly pestilence.

People: God shall cover you with his wings;
You will be safe in God's everlasting care.
God's faithfulness will protect and defend you.

Leader: You need not fear any terror by night or sudden attacks during the day;

People: Or the plagues that strike in the darkness,
or the evil and wickedness that kill in the daylight.

Leader: For God will put angels in charge over you to protect you wherever you go,

People: They will hold you up with their hands to keep you from dashing your foot against a stone.

Leader: God says, "I will save those who love me and will protect those who place their trust in me.

People: When they call to me, I will answer them;
I will rescue them from all their troubles.

Leader: I will bless them with long life;
in my merciful love I shall redeem them."

POEM

Beneath the Ashes, Elms and Oaks

Beneath those elms whose branches shape a nave,
As if nature had conspired with man
To create a sanctum where learning thrives,
We walked to class each day; or past ashes,
Ancient prophets, gesturing with lopped limbs
At the parade of faces, that stood guard
Like sentinels about spacious Cannon Green.
Scattered about, big-boled oaks spread out
Their massive branches and canopy of shade
Beneath which space-age Frisbees curved and arced
Or a student sat and quietly read.

History had a sacred moment here:
When cannons blasted metal spheres at Nassau Hall.
A pall of smoke hung upon the fetid air,
As if to hide the carnage on the ground.
The battle flags, just new, were pierced and torn.
The dead that day had names we don't recall.
Set about this green, like nature's pillars,
The ashes, oaks and elms commemorate
Those that died so this nation could be born.

Lawrence S. Horn '66

The growth rings of these ageing trees record
The fifty years that have elapsed between Our graduation and right now. And where
A young tree takes the place of what had been Rooted there before, its presence on the lawn
And the absence it replaces, might remind us
Of those faces which we knew and now are gone.

LITANY OF REMEMBRANCE

Andrew A. Littauer '66
Read by John L. Logan '66

Leader: Gracious Lord, you have richly blessed us with the companionship and the love of our friends and colleagues departed.

We give thanks for their accomplishments, for all they shared with us, and for the joy they brought to life.

Leader: We remember their devotion, their sacrifices, their steadfastness, their courage.

We recall their laughter and honesty, their vulnerability and compassion.

Leader: May we continue to draw strength and inspiration from their lives.

May we always honor their memory through our acts of service and love.

Leader: Give strength and comfort and peace to their families and loved ones.

And grant that we may be among those who stand faithfully with them.

Leader: With grateful hearts we entrust our friends and loved one to your eternal love.

May your light and love shine upon them forever.

Leader: Holy God, creator of all, our guiding spirit, and our final resting place,

Direct us in all our doings and bless us with joy and hope and peace. Amen.

READING OF NAMES OF DEPARTED CLASSMATES

Old Nassau

Reader #1...

Congregation:

Tune ev'ry heart and ev'ry voice, Bid ev'ry care withdraw;
That all with one accord rejoice, In praise of Old Nassau

Refrain

In praise of Old Nassau, we sing,
Hurrah! Hurrah! Hurrah!
Our hearts will give, while we shall live,
Three cheers for Old Nassau.

Reader #2...

Congregation:

Let music rule the fleeting hour, Her mantle round us draw;
And thrill each heart with all her pow'r, In praise of Old Nassau.

(Refrain)

Reader #3....

Congregation:

And when these walls in dust are laid, With reverence and awe
Another throng shall breathe our song, In praise of Old Nassau.
(Refrain)

Reader #4...

Congregation:

Till then with joy our songs we'll bring, And while a breath we draw,
We'll all unite to shout and sing: Long life to Old Nassau!
(Refrain)

A PRAYER FOR PRINCETON

Leader: Eternal God, the creator and preserver of all that is, we beseech you to bestow upon this university your manifold gifts of grace: your truth to those who teach, your joy to those who learn, your wisdom to those who administer, your laws to those who hold its mission and its work in trust. By these gracious influences of your Spirit bind all who bear the name of Princeton into the company of those who know your steadfast love.

People: Amen.

HYMN

Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee

Hymn to Joy

Ludwig von Beethoven

Words by Rev. Henry van Dyke '73

I

Joyful, joyful, we adore you, God of glory, God of love;
Hearts unfold like flowers before you opening to the sun above.
Melt the clouds of sin and sadness, drive the storms of doubt away;
Giver of immortal gladness, fill us with the light of day.

II

All your works with joy surround you, earth and heaven reflect your rays,
Stars and angels sing around you, center of unbroken praise,
Field and forest, vale and mountain, flowery meadows, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, teach us what our praise should be.

III

You are giving and forgiving, ever blessing, ever blessed,
Well-spring of the joy of living, ocean depth of happy rest!
Loving Spirit, Father, Mother, all who love belong to you,
Teach us how to love each other, by that love our joy renew.

IV

Mortals, join the mighty chorus which the morning stars began;
Boundless love is reigning o'er us, reconciling race and clan.
Ever singing, move we forward, faithful in the midst of strife,
Joyful music leads us onward in the triumph song of life.

BENEDICTION

As we depart from this hallowed Chapel, with walls etched with the names of sons and daughters of Princeton, let us reflect and rejoice one more time for the joys we shared on this campus with our classmates now departed, and let us thank and bless the Lord for those opportunities. Let us think well of the names we have honored, and let our hearts and minds remember them beyond this moment. Indeed, may their memory be eternal. And may we likewise think well of those who still surround us today, family and classmates, rejoicing and sharing with gratitude the blessings of long life and abundance we have received. The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you; the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace. Amen.
